STEVENS NEARING HIS JOURNEY'S END

American Who Will Represent Him in Korea.

The Sacred Treasure decoration has its origin in one of the legends of Japan. In the early days an immense quantity of gold, collected from the people, was set aside as tribute to the national gods. This gave rise to the formation of a society for protection and care of the treasure.

An Honorary Rank.

Winter set in. At that time marine circles in London, in which city several ships were chartered, were very skeptical as to these vessels reaching the eastern coast of the experience of the Canton shows that this skepticism was justified.

What the people of the Siberian cities will do when their present small supply of oil gives out is problematical.

This, he says, the Liberals have failed to do, and his confession followed as a result of this failure.

Later, the order lost this significance and in modern Japan it is only honor ary in character, the grand cross of the order being conferred upon those who have done distinguished service.

The case has been running in the United States branch of the Police Court for four days and Judge Kimbali and Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given were solicitous of ending it last night. For that reason Judge Kimball instructed the jury to again retire to their room and reconsider the case of Donaldson. Sentence has not yet been imposed upon Thiel and it is probable had not agreed in Donaldson's case and Judge Kimball excused the jurymen from further duty.
